

Brian Patrick Hamilton

December 15, 1961 - January 24, 2019

Brian Patrick Hamilton died on January 24, 2019, in Visalia, CA due to complications following a triple bypass heart operation. He was 57 years old. Wickedly amusing and fun loving, Brian was precious to many. Brian loved with purpose; fiercely and unconditionally. Brian was born on December 15, 1961, in Oxnard CA, to his parents William and Catherine Hamilton. He graduated from Santa Clara High School in Oxnard, CA in 1980 and later lived in Bakersfield, CA with his son. On February 7, 2009, Brian married the love of his life and moved to Tulare, CA where he cherished time with his family. As a supportive husband and father, he enjoyed helping others at every opportunity and encouraged big dreams. Brian prioritized family and never worried unnecessarily. Brian was passionate about gardening, competitive family game nights, and continuing his mother's tradition of Christmas baking.

Brian Hamilton is survived by his wife, Brenda Hamilton; his son, William Hamilton; his daughter, Alexis Boggs; his siblings, Mark Hamilton, and his wife, Diane; Karen Furr, and her husband, Jerry; Kevin Hamilton, and his wife Juli; Catherine Greigo; David Hamilton, and his wife, Naomi; Margaret Tobin, and her husband, Tim; Joseph Hamilton, and his wife, Mary; Rosemarie Robinson, and her husband, Randy; as well as numerous nieces and nephews.

A memorial will take place on February 16, 2019 at 11:00 AM, at the Clubhouse in Toucan Terrace, 955 Terry Drive, Pismo Beach. If you plan to attend, please contact Karen at (805) 709-3993.

“ Brian I will never forget your non-judgmental heart and the words you shared with me when i reached out to you . I am glad I did not wait and better yet I am glad you answered. My heart will always keep you with me .
We lost a great man and friend.
Your littlest sis, Rose
