“ Dear sweet Della; my mother’s lifelong friend. Always ready to help whomever she could, however she could. Always a lady of class; always giving. She could talk to anyone about anything. I will forever remember her for her joyous smile and her little, devious, laugh. Thank you for your kindness; for your warm embraces and infectious smile. Heaven just welcomed a happy soul, I can see her dancing through the clouds, may you Rest In Peace our dear, sweet, lady you will be missed my sincerest condolences to your family; blessings of peace and courage. May your memories bring you comfort.
