

Dora J. Regalado

January 22, 1929 - October 7, 2019

Dora was a simple and God fearing person. She enjoyed being retired and loved gardening and the outdoors. She could sit outside on her bench swing for hours just taking in the great outdoors. She loved flowers, plants, watching the birds , butterflies or anything else that went by. She was appreciative of anything that was done for her or given to her no matter how small.

She also loved music from country to Mexican to big band. She loved to dance and even danced by herself until the day she died.

Dora lost her husband, the love of her life, in 1966 being left with 8 children to raise which she did alone never re-marrying.

Her children:

Irene Regalado Gonzales

Francisco Regalado

Stella Regalado Trujillo

Eddie Regalado

Johnny Regalado

Marcos Regalado

Xavier Regalado

Fabian Regalado

She also had several grandchildren and great grandchildren.

She retired from Terrace Park Convalescent Home where she was a highly respected employee as her work ethics were second to none.

She carried herself with pride, dignity and integrity.

Dora was born to Marcos and Francisca Jaramillo January 22, 1929 and lived in Tulare most of her life. She moved to Bakersfield in approximately 1995 where she lived with her son Eddie moving back to Tulare in March 2018.
