“ My dad was the type of person everyone wanted to be around. He loved to make people laugh and had such a big heart for everyone. It's no wonder why his brother was exactly the same. Growing up it was unfortunate that we didn't live closer to him but I remember my dad calling my Tio Eddie every chance he got. I know he loved his little brother dearly. My dad tried to make sure we knew him and that we had that connection. I remember going out there a few times. Swimming in the pool, watching movies, showing up unannounced and crashing a wedding (my dad loved being "spontaneous"). After my dad's passing, my Tio Eddie showed up if not every summer it was almost every summer. We loved having him here, bowling, eating, and talking. My nieces and nephew were blessed to share those moments with their Tio/Tata Eddie. He helped fill a portion of the void we had after my dad passed and I am forever grateful for that. It gives me hope and peace believing that he and my dad are reunited. Family we love you all and thank you for sharing him with us. With all my love, Monica De Los Reyes (Chapo's youngest)
