If Roses Grow in Heaven

If roses grow in heaven lord, please pick a bunch from us.

Place them in her arms and tell her they're from all of us.

Tell her that we love her and miss her, and when she turns to smile,

Place a kiss upon her cheek and hold her for a while.

Because remembering her is easy, We do it every day.

But there's an ache within our hearts that will never go away.

Services have been entrusted to Salser & Dillard Funeral Chapel. Memorial Tributes and condolences may be offered by logging onto www.salseranddillard.com.

“ *Babe - I remember when you visited us here in New Mexico during the Balloon Fiesta. Your face had the biggest grin when you helped to launch a Balloon. I can still see you at the Indian Culture Center dancing with the Native Americans (sorry about making you do that). Love You Sis

“ *My mother, Della, and I offer our most heart felt sympathy at this most difficult time. We lend a shoulder and sympathetic ear/heart should you ever require it. She was loved, honored and will be missed greatly by all who had the pleasure of knowing her. The loss of such a genuine, giving and loving soul will be felt by us all.
We will carry and treasure all the fond memories of her the rest of our lives.
With love, Kevin and Della*

“ Babe & I did a lot of things together over the years, lots of memories, yet, sometimes when we get older those memories fade. When something jogs my memory, I will share it either here or on regular Facebook. She was a friend as well as a sister.

“ On one of Babes visits to Wyoming, it was Mountain man rendezvous. While it was a great time & we were enjoying the day, the highlight came when she spied an exact look alike of Danny (Kim's dad) he was wearing a simple loin cloth & war paint, while dancing an Indian dance. We laughed for years remembering that moment.

“ Babe came to Wyoming several times to visit. The Cowboy days were going on one visit, With Grizzly Adams as the guest of Honor, she wanted so badly to meet him. After she had left, we found out Grizzly had been staying at a friend's (in secret) broke my heart to tell her she could have sat and talked awhile.
