

Rosemary Catron

June 17, 1947 - September 17, 2021

Rosemary McGrew Catron, of Tulare CA. passed away from a short battle with cancer on September 17, 2021.

Rosemary was born on June 17, 1947 to Dr. Donald Joseph McGrew and Cecil Marie Carne McGrew, in Darby Pennsylvania. After graduating from Tulare Union High School in 1965 she attended College of the Sequoias. In April of 1966, she wed Rodger J. Catron and became a dedicated farmer's wife and accomplished artist.

Rosemary was preceded in death by her mother and father and brothers Michael F. McGrew and Duncan F. McGrew. She is survived by her husband of 55 years Rodger J. Catron, brothers John F. McGrew, Buz McGrew, sisters in law Darla McGrew, Judy McGrew and Louise McGrew, nieces and nephews Molly McGrew, Maggie Hodson, John T. McGrew, Eryn E. Salazar, and Matthew F. McGrew and many grand nieces and nephews.

Rosemary was an accomplished horsewoman and a member of the Visalia Rockettes in her youth. She enjoyed cooking and baking, and was an exceptionally talented artist. Her favorite medium was pencil and gourds. She loved Harvest season and decorated extravagantly during Halloween. She baked homemade treats for her nieces and nephews and their children and welcomed them into her home. She had many friends and family and was loved by all.

A memorial celebration is being planned for a later date.

Services have been entrusted to Salser & Dillard Funeral Chapel. Memorial Tributes and condolences may be offered by logging onto www.salseranddillard.com.

“ Rosemary saved me in high school. She picked me up and took me to school. She taught me how to ride a horse. She was like my big sister. And while we never saw each other in our older years, I will always remember her as the big sister that saved me in high school.
