“ Although Sam is no longer here with us and will dearly be missed I am happy for him as he can once again hug his Dad and brothers Roc and Gus whom he lost all those years ago. I am also jealous he gets to chill with my brother Carlos again as my heart is still mending from that wound. Sam was as genuine a person as they come. There are so many memories over the years it hard to choose just one, from cruising "Success" all hours of the night to drinking coronas in the Garcia's front yard with all the guys Sam always had a great sense of humor! He was always the main on cracking jokes and making us roll. I will always remember that big smile and his enduring passion for his entire family, especially his wife Patty. I know there is no comfort or amount of condolences that will kill the pain but just know he touched a lot of people during his time here, me being one of them. I send prayers to his entire family and friends
