“ I am sorry to hear of Velma's passing. I had not seen here in many years but remember her sweet laughter and being with all the cousins at Grandma Maria's house. God bless you all especially her children and grandchildren. Norma Garcia

“ My Grandma Velma was a strong woman, and she inspired me so much. When i'm down I think about the times I have spent time with her coloring and talking about my day. She will always and forever live in my heart. She was the sweetest person ever. I love you grandma.

“ Velma and I grew up together; we lived on the same street, went to school together and when we got older we used to hang out and have lots of fun. I was in your wedding and we tried to keep in touch as the years went by. Made plans to visit you when you lived with Gloria but the pandemic prevented that. You were always in my prayers and I know you're at peace in God's loving care. I loved you like a sister Velma, you were a true friend. God Bless you Velma; I'll see when it's my time to come Home and we can have a good time again! Love and Blessings!

“ My deepest condolences to family.
Velma was a true and loyal friend. We hung out during high school, went to COS together and worked our first job together at Strawhat pizza. She babysit my kids when I worked at VMC and always made sure they were well taken care of. Velma was always happy and content with her life. She never complained and was the best mother to her three children. After her mom died we lost track of each other but I was blessed to reconnect with her a few years ago. Thank you Rocky for keeping me in contact with your mom through phone calls. I'll cherish our friendship forever and the memories we made through the years.
God bless you my friend!

“ My deepest condolences to the Dorado family. Velma was a childhood friend of me & my sister Maria. Over the years we lost contact with her, nevertheless she was always in our thoughts and prayers. One memory I have of us playing in the jungle, which was Grandma Mary's backyard, which had a fig trees, nectarine trees and many cactus, it was our playground. We would play for hours until my Mom & Agapita would call us in for dinner. There's a saying " I'll never forget the neighborhood kids I grew up with or the great times we had!" Velma that was written for you. God bless & may you rest in peace.

“ The sorrow of losing a loved one is like a horrible storm in the night. We who have lost so many relatives and friends know the instant pain and heartache we feel. But that storm in the night will end with the daylight of knowing that the soul is eternal and never dies. I pray to our Lord God to allow Velma's soul to reach heaven as thy will be done. I last saw you as a chubby little girl back in the 1960s after I returned from the Army during Vietnam

Your dad and Sal I were great cousins/friends and drank a few together once in a while. We will see each other again,

Your cousin
