

Aaron Clay Park

May 19, 1988 - November 1, 2023

Aaron Clay Park began his life on May 19, 1988. From the start, he charmed everyone with his cleverness and curiosity. Soon after he could walk, he was chopping wood and re-roofing. He could often be found tucked away in a quiet corner tearing through novels or outmaneuvering his friends in Magic: The Gathering. He recognized the importance of helping people with their emotional and psychological challenges, first by getting his bachelor's degree in psychology at UC Santa Cruz and then caring for those most in need at 7th Avenue Clinic in Santa Cruz. He expanded his abilities to heal, becoming a Physician Assistant at Marshall B. Ketchum University. This is where he met Julia, his life partner and best friend. Together they rescued Apollo, their derp and sweet pup. Julia and Aaron married May 1, 2022 on a clear-sky day in the Sierra foothills. Aaron worked as a PA at the Kaweah Health Emergency Department, where he saved and mended many lives.

He linked irreverent humor with deep emotional fluency, communicating as much with his furrowed brow as with his supreme verbal clarity. Aaron had an impeccable memory and brought stories to life. He loved spending time outside - camping, hiking, fishing, sailing, exploring. He was a jokester and teased people in proportion to his love for them. He cooked like a pro, introducing the family to at least four new ways to enjoy red meat. Aaron was intensely loyal to those he held dear. Aaron lived with integrity, full of life, forever curious, with his big heart at the center. He was a divine gift to us all. His presence will be carried forward by his wife, Julia, his parents, Chris and

Jeff, and his siblings, Hillary and Austin, and his grandpa, Ray.
