

Adele Clara Mosebar

November 9, 1928 - May 11, 2018

November 9, 1928-March 11, 2018

Adele Clara Gaines Mosebar, age 89, passed away peacefully on May 11, 2018.

She was born to Leslie and Wilda Gaines on November 9, 1928 in Yakima, Washington. Adele had one brother, Leslie, who preceded her in death. She was preceded in death by her husband of 57 years, Paul S. Mosebar. One daughter, Paulette Lucas, also preceded her in death. Adele is survived by her daughters Linda McGehee, Cherie Peterson, Denise Boon and her sons Doug, David, and Donald Mosebar. She was very proud of her many grandchildren, great grandchildren and great great grandchildren.

Adele and her husband had a farm for many years in Yakima, Washington where they raised corn, cattle, and hay. Growing and preserving food was a way of life on the farm. Churning butter and raising chickens for eggs and food were some of the activities on the farm. In 1966, they and their family moved to California. Adele and Paul lived primarily in the Visalia area after that.

Adele was a 30 member of the Visalia Garden Club and was past president in 1987-1989. She enjoyed genealogy and kept many scrapbooks of family history and lineage.

“ Adele moved in next door to me in Visalia. She became a good friend. One of our weekly routines, which included another neighbor, was peanut butter madness day. The three of us would meet every Thursday to enjoy peanut butter sandwiches. Adele would cut up some fruit and some times would surprise us with key lime pie. I will miss her dearly. Rest In Peace my friend
