

Albert Gilbert Martinez

November 8, 1946 - August 13, 2025

Albert was born Albert Gilbert Martinez on November 8, 1946 to Salvador and Mary Martinez. He was 1 of 10 children, they lived in Seville, Ca for many years and later in life ended up in Cutler, Ca.

Albert worked as a forklift operator for over 50 years and retired from Fruit Patch Inc. out of Dinuba. Albert was married to Delia Martinez for over 50 years, in those years they had 3 children, Albert Jr, Roxann and Tony as well as 9 grandkids.

Albert and Delia celebrated 53 years of marriage. Albert was very active doing his yard and taking care of his plants. He opened his home to those who needed a place to stay welcoming you with open arms. If you knew my Dad then you were family, never selfish always willing to help those in need. Myself, my brother and sister are blessed to call him Father.....WE LOVE YOU DAD FOREVER IN OUR HEARTS.

“ Dad, I think about you every single day, and seems to be harder and harder to understand that you are gone. I will always keep you close to my heart. It has been 8 months since you left us and it is so unreal still. It feels as if you just went on a trip and will be back soon. Your grandson's miss you dearly.

“ I will forever miss you padre , If you knew my father you knew he was the kindest man on earth , always thinking of others first . He would gladly fix you a plate to eat as well as offer his home to anyone who needed a place to stay. I he was an angel walking on earth . I will forever be broken with out you dad. We will miss your jokes that only made sense to you ,yet always made us laugh. You were the BEST GRANDFATHER anyone could have. I will miss everything about but I know your happy now with your mom whom you missed dearly . Until we join you please save us a spot to join you .
