

Alberto Cruz Tadeo

January 24, 1970 - March 21, 2022

In memory of Alberto Cruz Tadeo.

Alberto was a loving, caring and a family man. Who worked hard his whole life. He enjoyed traveling, being outdoors, dancing, he loved music and with the music he was able to express himself.

He worked as a Carpenter for many years and with his line of work he made many good friends and memories.

One special memory his children have is; On Saturday mornings, Alberto will wake up playing Marcos Antonio Solis full volume and he would have hot chocolate with conchas (sweet bread) ready for them. As he is outside building cabinets we would hear laughter, we would know our uncles were with him to help him build cabinets.

Alberto loved his brothers and sisters. Any chance he had he would go spend time with them. They shared many memories. Having quality time with family was very important for him. One of his greatest memories for him was when all his family were together. Just hearing my Aunts and Uncles reminisce with my father about their childhood brought joy to his heart.

Alberto Cruz was loved by all and even though we are parting from him for a while it brings us great comfort that we know we will see him again. He is now with his parents, brothers, family and friends.
