

Aleta Boisvert

September 17, 1950 - October 15, 2016

Private services will be held.

Tribute Wall

DL

“ I'm in shock write now. I found her about 15 years ago by doing an Internet search. I called and we talked for a long time. A few minutes ago her name came up in my contacts on FB messenger. It never had before. So I got excited and put her name in to find her profile and it directed me to her obituary page. I have no words. ALETA and I were childhood friends. That friendship continued into junior high and Dracut High School. I would go to her house a lot and she hung out at mine. I was with her when she was learning how to play drums.. And mastered it. She was beautiful as a child and thru her school years. At the same time I was going to Haight Ashbury she went to the LA area. Wow. 10 minutes ago I was excited that I was going to reconnect with her. Not so. Very sad.

Deborah Xaros Lanigan - April 22, 2017 at 04:31 AM

LC

Love her memories beautiful girl.All will never forget you

Laurence Conlon - September 16, 2020 at 07:05 PM

“ The first time I met Aleta she was in the high school Battle of the Bands, she was the drummer and I think they won!!! A few years later was I ever surprised when Rick brought me to meet his sister, and it turned out to be her. She was a beauty, just lovely. The last time I saw her she was so happy, she and Leslie were in love and they had a new baby Ahnorroh Rose!...So many years we missed out on...and so happy that we reconnected recently even if it was for such a short time. God Bless Geraldine and family

Geraldine Fitzpatrick Borland - October 26, 2016 at 09:21 PM

JP

“ Aleta lived in my home when she first came to California. She was always a free spirit and I loved to hear her laugh. I loved her and was always sorry we didn't keep in touch. I'm so sorry for your loss and know she is in the arms of her loving father in heaven. May her family find comfort at this time. I have missed her...love to all of you.
Janice Peltzer Nielsen. (559) 816 6114.

Janice Peltzer - October 23, 2016 at 11:42 PM