Fred was born in Edinburg, TX on December 11, 1951 to Guadalupe and Juanita Saenz. The youngest of eight children, he grew up traveling throughout the country working in the fields, but called La Villa, TX his home. On February 25, 1970 Fred married his high school sweetheart Olga Gutierrez from Edcouch, TX. Together they raised four children, Veronica Saenz Hernandez, Yvonne Saenz Valdez, Alfredo M. Saenz Jr., all from Visalia, CA and Cecilia Marie Saenz from Carrollton, TX. In 1983 he moved his family to Visalia and has called it home ever since. Fred worked as a paralegal for many years. An avid music lover, he spent time as a performer, promotor, and as a DJ. He loved spending time with Olga and their Chihuahuas going to yard sales, and restoring antiques. He also loved a good hamburger, no onions of course, no matter the time of day! “ *Olga and Family,
I was deeply saddened to hear of Fred's passing. Wonderful memories of many get togethers from long ago came rushing to my mind. All the laughter and payasadas with Fred made me smile, laugh and thankful I was blessed to know him, you and your wonderful family. I am so very sorry for your huge loss as he was a wonderful man and friend. May God bless and comfort you at this difficult and painful time. It is my wish that through the many special moments and memories of your years together you will always feel his presence and smile when you think of him. He will be missed.*

With sympathy and love,
