“ I want to extend my sincere condolences to Alice's family. I met Alice at the "German Club" after I moved to Visalia and I got to know her as a kind, gentle lady. She was a wonderful hostess, always set a beautiful table and baked delicious cakes - especially her "gedeckte Apfeltorte." I will miss her.

"What you leave behind is not what is engraved in stone monuments but what is woven into the lives of others." (Pericles, ca. 495 - 429 B.C.)
