

Alyssa Joyce Alcaraz

July 12, 2005 - December 17, 2017

Alyssa Joyce Alcaraz, 12, of Visalia was granted her angel wings and went home to be with the Lord on December 17, 2017. She was born in Visalia on July 12, 2005, to Jeremy Alcaraz and Keila Lino. She was our beloved daughter, sister, granddaughter, great granddaughter, niece, cousin, and friend. She was a student at Green Acres Middle School, and enjoyed science and choir. Alyssa had a passion for music; not a day went by that she wouldn't sing her little heart out. Now she's singing with the angels. Her hobbies were baking, cooking, and spending quality time with her family. She could make a cake better than the "Cake Boss" man himself. Her home-cooked meals will surely be missed by her siblings. Alyssa was a brave and strong young woman her entire life, even until her last breath of air. Overall, she was an amazing person and will be greatly missed by all of us.

She was preceded in death by her great grandmother, Rachel B. Rodriguez, two uncles Erby Lopez and Phil Guterrez. Survivors include her father, Jeremy Alcaraz of Tulare, her mother, Keila Lino of Visalia; two sisters, Mariah and Marissa Alcaraz, both of Visalia, and one brother, Andrew Alcaraz, also of Visalia.

A celebration of life will be held Friday, December 29, 2017, at 10:30 AM at Tulare Community Church. Burial will follow the service at Visalia District Cemetery. Memorial tributes can be offered by logging onto www.salseranddil

“ My sincere condolences to all of Alyssa's family on your loss. May God be with you during this difficult time to strengthen you as he has promised. (Isaiah 41:10, 13) Also please be assured of God's love, and that he is there for you. So speak to him, throw the weight of your pain and sorrow upon him and he will sustain you. (1 Peter 5:6, 7)
