

Andres Ramirez

August 24, 1984 - January 23, 2020

Andres was a loving father, husband, son, brother and friend. Although his life was cut short, he lived every day to the fullest. He was happily married to his high school sweetheart, Cynthia, who loved him dearly and never left his side. Andres has three beautiful children, Jackie, Jessica and Jayden, who will carry on his memory. Jackie inherited her dad's love for sports, and she makes her dad so proud both on the field and off. Jessica has her father's loving and giving heart, and will continue to share that love with those around her. Jayden has his father's sense of humor, silliness and beautiful smile. Andres loved his wife and children dearly, and did everything he could for his family.

Andres was a wonderful son and brother. He loved his parents, sisters and brother dearly, and will be greatly missed by his family. His mother and father raised him to be loving, kind, and hard working. His siblings have endless stories of his sense of humor, his love and all the wonderful memories they shared throughout his lifetime. Life will never be the same without him in our lives, but he would want his family and friends to remember the good times and share those good times with his children. With his passing he leaves a hole in each one of our hearts, but we are all thankful for all the love and memories he left behind.

“ I worked with Andres and his sister and I am so sorry for the pain and heartbreak the family is going through. I'm praying for comfort and peace and continued strength for the whole family and loved ones. I'm thankful to have known a great man like Andres and I will never forget his smarts and kindness. Love, Jennifer
