“ We are recent neighbors of Anna and Dennis in Arroyo Grande, and are not as blessed as all of you with so many memories of Anna early and later in life, however the short time that we have known her we felt very lucky to have such a sweet and loving friend in our lives.

Anna, Ashley and I use to walk in the neighborhood talking about her family and things she use to do when she lived in Visalia. We would laugh and hug and i remember her always telling me how she loved having friendly neighbors across the street.

We would have movie night and Anna would come in with all kinds of snacks and we would sit down and watch the movie Dennis would pick out for ust o watch.

She had the most beautiful and genuing smile that would light up a room, always so happy to see us.

To know Anna was to love her she was the most gentle, loving, kind, generous and beautiful person we have ever had the pleasure of be friends with. She will be missed by so many including us. Her memories and those on this beautiful and cherished video will live on forever.

I know that Anna is with the Lord and her family once again watching over her family.

May God Bless Anna and her family!

With our love, Angela and Mel
