

Barry Keith Hettenbach

April 21, 1964 - April 16, 2014

Barry Keith Hettenbach

It is with great sadness that the family of Barry K. Hettenbach announce his passing from this world on April 16, 2014. He was 49 years old. Barry was born on April 21, 1964 in Visalia, California to Kenneth Hettenbach and Janice McCombs. He worked as an Iron worker for Bradford Steel for much of his adult life. Barry was a man of many different interests. Barry dearly loved his boys Michael and Alex and enjoyed taking them camping when he could. He also loved baseball and was an avid Yankees fan. He took great delight in enjoying a game as often as possible. Another of his favorite pastimes was participating in a stimulating game of "Crabbage" with his mom, Janice. Barry is preceded in death by his father, Kenneth Hettenbach and his step-father Dick McCombs. He is survived by his two sons Michael Hettenbach, his wife Kara and their son Ty of Ft. Carson, Colo. and Alex Reigal of Dunlap, CA. He also leaves his mother, Janice McCombs who lives in Visalia, CA and a brother Randy Hettenbach and his wife Genie of Winston, Oregon. Barry also leaves behind many friends and a large extended family. He was loved by many and will be missed by them all

Tribute Wall

CG

“ I was so sorry to hear of the passing of Barry .So young and so much life yet to live, but Barry lived a life that he obviously enjoyed. He was always a hoot at the card table with family and friends, he leaves me with those family barbque memories and horseshoe games a many. Rest in peace Barry

---

connie george - April 28, 2014 at 10:18 AM