

Ben Richard Rings

July 22, 1941 - May 28, 2025

Ben Richard Rings, 83 years old, passed away, leaving behind a legacy of love and resilience. He was the cherished husband of Roy-Rita and a devoted father to Scott, husband to Sandra; Stacy, wife to Sam and Steven, husband to Danielle. Ben was preceded in death by his beloved daughter, Stephanie.

As a proud grandfather to 10 grandchildren and 14 great-grandkids, Ben was the foundational rock of his family, known for his personal sacrifices and unwavering support. Education was of great importance to Ben, as he held a B.S. Aeronautical Engineering degree from University of Arizona and attended numerous continuing education courses in specialized and advanced programs throughout his lifetime.

Ben's dedication extended beyond his family. He served with honor in his careers with California Department of Corrections, General Electric and executive roles in the private sector.

Ben will be remembered for his kind spirit and the joy he brought to those around him. His love and guidance will continue to live on in the hearts of his family and friends.
