“ Betty leaves behind a great legacy, her family. Her sense of humor an amazing gift that she shared with everyone that knew her. My deepest condolences for your loss and during this time of grieving. You're all loved by many.

“ Betty Jo Lady put family and friends #1 in her life and will be sadly missed by all who knew her. She was great at many things, but at the top of that list would be how hard she worked to keep family and friends close. Always a joy to be around, with her amazingly comical sense of humor. I bet her late husband, my grandfather, Gerald Lady is now by her side once again. The smiles they share today in heaven are most likely reminiscent of the smiles they shared together while they were driving to Morro Bay or Pine Flat Dam to go camping with their friends and family. They LOVED camping. Betty Jo Lady, a SF Giants fan 'to the bone' was lucky enough to spend her final 5 years on this earth witnessing her Giants play in 3 World Series'....another part of life that made her smile from ear to ear.

You will be missed Grandma Betty...I Love You very much.

*Your Grandson,
Michael Reece*
