Beverly grew up in Nebraska and lived there until her marriage in 1956. After her marriage, she followed her husband in his Navy career to many different locations. Her favorite place to live was Hawaii. Beverly has lived in Visalia since 1975.

Beverly worked as a secretary in several different businesses through the years but, according to her, her true career was her family. She participated in many capacities in Girl Scouts, PTA, Job's Daughters, youth groups, mentor mom groups, Bible studies, and involved herself in her children's and grandchildren's activities. Beverly was blessed to have a strong faith in her Savior. Her favorite verses were Psalm 23:1 - 6, "The Lord is my Shepherd...".
