

Bounmee Toulasack

August 4, 1932 - December 17, 2019

On Tuesday, December 17, 2019, Bounmee Toulasack, loving mother, sister, and grand-mother passed away at the age of 87. Bounmee was born on August 4, 1932 in Laos and was a current widow to Phaeng Toulasack whom she was married to for over 40 years. She immigrated to the United States of America in the 1980's in hopes of having a better quality of life and continuously providing for her family. She became a United States citizen on October 18, 2004 which was a major accomplishment in her life. She raised two children, Khamneo Toulasack and Chanhpheng Toulasack.

Bounmee was a skillful person working in factories in Santa Barbara, CA where she came to settle when immigrating into the new world and became a homemaker for the rest of her life in Visalia, CA. She was tremendously kind-hearted and found religion to be an important aspect in life. Bounmee was dedicated to serving Buddha along with the temples and community; she loved to sew in her free time and was very active. She was admired for her gracious and joyous personality and everyone knew Bounmee as the "little old lady."

Bounmee leaves behind two children, Khamneo Toulasack and Chanhpheng Toulasack; seven grand-children, Allison Toulasack, Shyann Leah Mass, Mariah Levada Mass, Malik Toulasack-Mass, Linda Sayathy, Kevin Sayathy, and Chris Sayathy; and one great-grandchild, Zayden Matthew Ibarra whom genuinely loved her.

We will miss her dearly and one day we will meet again.
