“ I was reaching out to say hello when I discovered the news of Brent's passing. I was immediately saddened by the news as I am sure many others were. He was a friend and colleague. Brent brought a strong element of humanity to staff, colleagues and leaders. He always had a solution to proposed challenges. Additionally, he was a good friend. Everyone is better off for having known him. I send my deepest sympathy to the family and loved ones. Clarence Cryer, JR., Executive Director of Correctional Health Operations, JPS Health Network.
