

Brian Lee Robles

January 13, 1961 - January 10, 2016

Brian Lee Robles was born January 13, 1961 in Exeter, California. He passed away January 10, 2016 in Farmersville, CA, just three days shy of his 55th birthday. Born to David and Yutha Robles he spent his childhood in Visalia, El Centro, and Las Vegas, Nevada. He spent his adult life in the Lodi area of Northern, California. He worked as an auto mechanic and auto upholsterer. He also worked as a mason and a wine master.

Brian is survived by his wife Teresa of Lodi, sons, James, Ian, Steven, and Aaron. Step-children, Kurt (Brandy) Weston, Dillon (Sybil) Weston and Wayne Weston. He is also survived by his mother, Yutha Sands, father, and step-mother, David and Jan Robles, siblings, Randy and Richard Robles, Dylan and Kara Robles. Brian had a deep love for his grandchildren, Laura, Emma, Ozzy, Jade and Charlie. Also surviving are numerous cousins, uncles, aunts and more.

Brian has a love for music and made a lasting impression on everyone he encountered. He lived life his way and to the fullest. He had the kindest heart and would give you the shirt off his back and his last dollar.

The family extends special thanks to Kaweah Delta Hospice Foundation. Memorial services will be held at a later date.

“ Brian you will be missed dearly you were a wonderful friend your absence in body will hold a void in many hearts but never in spirit. You had a way with words to make a person feel special. My thoughts and prayers go out to the family. No more pain finally at peace.
