

Bryan Namahoe Wagner

May 4, 1979 - November 4, 2020

Bryan Namahoe Wagner, 41, of Visalia, CA became an angel, on November 4, 2020. He was born a long time ago in a galaxy far, far away. Well, maybe not that long ago or that far away. Bryan was born on May 4, 1979, in Lemoore, CA, and the force was strong with that one. Bryan would like to tell you that he was born sexy. His parents, mother Iwa Robotka and father, Don Robotka, would tell you that he was a blessing or pain in the rear, depending on the day. He was one of the funniest, kindest, people that ever lived. He was one-of-a-kind. The self-proclaimed "Sexiest Man Alive" married the love of his life, Samantha, on June 9, 2012. This was the beginning of their epic love story. He was the Han Solo to her Leia. Bryan would do what he could to bug her, and also make sure she knew she was loved fiercely by him. One of the ways he would do this is by singing at the top of his lungs, unusually in public, just to annoy her. He would love to tell their "Walmart" story and in the mornings he would go to Starbucks and get her favorite coffee. Bryan didn't miss an opportunity to show his love by bringing home a treat for his wife, or sending her a text message to simply say "I love you." Samantha was by his side from day one and was there until his last moments on Earth. Bryan became a Dad in 2015 to twins Lucas and Alexandria, who he (unsuccessfully) fought to name Luke and Leia. He loved his babies with every single fiber of his being. They were what he was the proudest of in life, and in his words, "my reason for being so awesome!" Bryan loved playing video games with Luke and Alex and joked with them every chance he got.

When they were infants, he would sing to them for hours. He enjoyed telling his son, "Luke, I am your father." The last thing he wanted to do while here on Earth was to see his babies. An avid gamer, until his kids came along, Bryan also enjoyed whistling his special tune. His love of Star Wars was inevitable, given that his birthday was May the Fourth. He always put his family first and he always had a joke, witty remark, or a fart on deck. Everything he did, he did with kindness, and a dash of humor. Bryan loved to call his mom "Ma" and follow it up by licking his lips and giving her a big, sloppy kiss. She hated this routine, so he would continue to do it, just to drive her crazy. Now she would do anything for him to do this routine one more time. Bryan appreciated everything that his dad, Don, did for him. Especially lately, when Don would take him back and forth to appointments. He will be remembered as an infamous jokester, a loving husband, an adoring father, an incredible son, a loyal brother, an annoying uncle, a partner in crime to his best friends, a man with a heart of gold, and a friend to all. There are many people that are left mourning this loss of his incredible man. He is survived by his loving wife Samantha, children: Lucas and Alexandria, Mother Iwa Robotka, Father Don Robotka, In-Laws Ken and Angela Rose, Brother Steve and DeAnna Judd, nephews: John, Keoni, Jayce, nieces; Kyra-Lynn, Pomai, Hoku, and Keana, Sisters: Magen Corcoran and Amanda Wagner, best friends Mikey Wolfe, Andres Villela, Luis Zapien, Aunties: Momi and Suzie, Uncles: Reggie and Jimmy, his one of kind Granddad Jim Belch and numerous Ohana, cousins and friends. "When gone am I, the last of the Jedi will you be. The Force runs strong in your family. Pass on what you have learned." ❖ Yoda Rest in peace our angel you will be forever loved and remembered.

“ Bryan, you were such a wonderful friend to know and work with. I'll never forget you. I remember working at Valero with you and that's where I got to meet and know your Ohana, your bff's, and your beautiful wife. Your family felt like family to me and your friends became my friends as well. I remember in 2003 when you were working and I stopped by with my to buy some munchie with my 2 year old son at that time, I ask you to watch him for a moment so I could go get my wallet in the car, I'm in that brief moment, I came back and you were chasing my some down the candy isle saying "hey buddy come back here" and he had taken all of the display classic car collectibles off the shelves and put them all on the floor. It was a mess. That was hilarious! We saw some crazy S### there too. Time went on but we still kept in touch via Facebook. You and Sam also share the same anniversary with my husband and I. You keep a space nice and warm up there for me my dear friend. When I feel the wind blow and see the trees gently sway, I will think of you whistling your sweet songs.
Hui Hou my dear friend!!
