

Candelario Benegas Luna

February 2, 1930 - February 3, 2023

Candelario Benegas Luna was born on February 2, 1930 in Marlin, TX to Jose and Augustina Luna. Cande went with the Lord on February 3, 2023 in Visalia, CA. He passed away in his home surrounded by his family. Cande was preceded in death by his parents, son Candelario Luna III, daughter Andrea Luna, and grandson Robert Mucio Luna. Cande leaves behind his wife of fifty-six years Teresa Luna, with whom he shared many years of love and happiness. Cande also leaves behind six children: Rudy (Dyan) Luna of Royston, GA, Joe (Betty) Luna of Porterville, CA, Candelario (Debra) Luna Jr., Amelia Luna, Richard Luna, & Gloria (David) Luna-Lawson all of Visalia, CA. Cande has numerous grandchildren, great grandchildren, and great-great grandchildren. Cande also has a brother Hipolito (Adela) Salazar of Raymondville, TX., and a sister Adela Luna of Dallas, TX.

Cande moved to Visalia in 1949, where he began working at Martin Ranch in Ivanhoe, CA. He worked in agriculture his whole life; Cande worked for the Clements family until he retired. Cande was an avid deer hunter and fisherman. He loved fishing at local lakes or the ocean. His favorite place to visit was Morro Bay, where he would spend countless hours fishing while his wife and daughters went shopping. During his free time, Cande enjoyed repairing lawn mowers, completing crossword puzzles, and spending time with his dog, Chino. Cande will be deeply missed by his family and all that knew him. What brings us solace during this difficult time is knowing he is in heaven with our passed loved ones resting in eternal glory.
