“ Was so sad to hear of your passing away Candy. You were a great coworker to have and I truly appreciated the bond that we shared. You were such a loving person and it showed in the care you provided to our clients. Thanks for being the amazing person that you were. You will be deeply missed.

She was a great Sister; Sister-in-law; Aunt; and the list could go on and on; she was loved by all that knew her and she will surely be missed; our sincere prayers go out to everyone and we know the Great Lord will continue to watch over guide and bless us all and give us the understanding that she is now in his loving care in heaven; and that she is now watching over all us with no further suffering; and I know she would want us all to continue to pray that the Great Lord continue to give us the wisdom; knowledge; understanding strength and faith as well as ability to rebuke Satan ; his angels; their temptations and all their evils; as we'll as to be influenced and influential to others so as we can all become more sincere; dedicated and devoted to worshipping and serving him; so as the world she's that with faith and belief that all things are possible for those that love him and if we look close enough in the sand we will know that he is carrying us through these kind of times of tragedy and that he will never allow us to endure anything that he does not believe we can not handle(consider the Poem "FootPrints") for as he may not always provide us with what we want ; but will provide what we need!!. In The Great Lords Love and Ours!! GOD BLESS EVERYONE!!; And Remeber Keep Faith And Belief Because The Great Lord Is In Fact There With Each And Everyone Of Us!!; especially in times like this
