

Carlos Juan Colon

September 22, 1954 - May 20, 2021

Carlos Juan Colon, entered our family on Sept. 22, 1954 in Nuremberg, Germany, where our father was stationed as a U.S. Army Officer. He left us for an even better life on May 20, 2021 in Exeter, California. His premature birth severely affected his hearing, his balance and his ability to speak. Nothing impeded his love of others. He welcomed everyone with a wide smile that exposed all his teeth. His long arms embraced them so tightly he left them gasping for air. He loved unconditionally, vibrantly and completely. He left this life the way he lived it, his eyes focused on those who cared for him, and loved him, at the New Horizons group home in Exeter, CA. He also spent time at the end, via Facetime, with his mother, Maria Magdalena Colon Del Valle, and his brothers Ricardo Enrique Colon and Aly Antonio Colon. His father, Juan Antonio Colon, a retired Lieutenant Colonel, preceded him in passing in 1993. Carlos enriched our lives immeasurably as has been documented in articles about him. We will miss the joy he offered so generously, and lovingly.
