“ To the Family of Tia Carmen Sánchez

Some of my memories of tia was when Tio Benito and Tia Carmen went with my family to Mexico to be witnesses at our marriage ceremony. This was in 1966.

I remember the breakfast get together at Grandma Mary's house to share and laugh about everything. Every time my tia laughed she would slap your shoulder if you were close enough. We even laughed about this. I admired my tia, she raised many children, endeavored many hardships, losing some of her children but throughout this she was there for her children. My mother who is 93, her sister, says she cannot believe she is gone. Gone but not forgotten. Tia, to me you have been an excellent role model. We love you. May God Almighty have mercy on your soul. May God open the gates of Heaven for you to dwell with him.
