

Carol Ann Reeser

May 4, 1954 - September 14, 2020

Carol Ann Reeser, age 66, passed away peacefully on September 14, 2020, due to complications related to stage 4 cancer. She was born on May 4, 1954, in Maywood, California to Reba Martin and Edsel Storkson. She married her longtime friend and love, Donald Melvin Reeser, on August 18, 2001.

Carol loved her family dearly. She often showed her love with food such as her famous pancakes, chocolate gravy and biscuits, and potato salad. She had a fierce essence and would do anything for her family. For more than 26 years Carol worked in the healthcare field as a medical administrator and office manager. She also studied cosmetology as a manicurist for over 10 years which was well suited to her creative spirit.

Carol is survived by her husband Donald; daughter Teasa and granddaughter Annika; daughter Beckie, her husband Jerry, and grandchildren Vincent, Caitlin, Joseph, Marisa, Noah, and great-granddaughter Lilliana; step-son Steven and his wife Christy; son Danny, his wife Jenna, and granddaughters Harper and Amelia; daughter Amanda, her husband Herman, and grandchildren Nathaniel and Samantha; siblings Gail, Richard, Linda, and Mark; siblings-in-law Bob, Lynda, Nancy, and John; plus her many extended family members, such as nieces, nephews, cousins, close friends, and confidants that she considered family by both blood and otherwise. All of these she loved and cared for deeply. Carol was preceded in death by her parents, Reba and Edsel, and her brother William.
