beautiful video. well done. I did not know Carrie well since I was friends with her sister Chris. I remember as being a very nice young lady.

Our family has known Caroline for 30 years. She was such a lovely person to be around. She was always so warm-hearted, supportive and generous. I could give many examples of the difference she made to our lives – as individuals (me, Gareth, Jennie and my mom, Llewellyn) and also as a family. Not forgetting her advice and support to the wider Haden family, too.

Gareth and I have many fond memories of her visit to us here in England with her friend Betty George, as well as all the time we were able to spend with her (and Fred) when we would visit California.

Caroline was a truly good person and I am grateful to have known her. She was fun, too! Her laugh sparkled like a splash of water in sunlight.

Rest well, dear Caroline.
