“ Carolyn you were the dearest of friends and an outstanding co-worker. You were there for the birth of my children and so many special events in my life. We may have been separated by the miles but not in our hearts. Love ya girl. See you again...❤️

“ Carolyn was so wonderful to work with. Always so helpful and kind. My thoughts are with the family, especially Liz and Kristy. Nothing can fully ease your pain except hopefully knowing how that Carolyn touched so many people with her smile and caring.

“ When Carolyn and I worked together at Kaweah's Cancer Care Program, I had double booked myself for 2 meetings. I had Carolyn attend 1 meeting and I attended the other. I heard later that they preferred the other "Carolyn" as she was nicer. They weren't talking about me. She was smart, fun, hard working, and always 1 step ahead of me. Loved her.

When the hospice nurse came out with the folder it was the same packet you two put together. She told her how you, Dr Havard and mom went out with your hard hats and dug at the ground opening. The nurse was amazed how full circle it all came.
