“ Just to express my sorrow at Carolyn's death and thank her and her family for the love and care she manifested during the nine months Pat was in America as well as the other times especially when we visited in 2006. May Carolyn rest in peace, sorry I'm not there.

“ One of my most vivid memories of Carolyn was something she did when my brother Joe was in the hospital. She and Pat, from Scotland, went to visit Joe during non-visiting hours. She told the nurse that she was Joe's wife so that they could see him and comfort him during what were his last hours. I will remember Carolyn as someone who could bend the rules but for all the right reasons. She was direct but also compassionate. She will be greatly missed. With love, Mary Lou and Dan
