“ I'm truly sorry to hear of your fathers passing. I remember him being a very nice and caring guy. I remember Iris, Cinda and Chucky coming out to spend a few summer weeks every year. It was a time we Torres boys looked forward to. Anyways i was just thinking of you guys and thought i would write a few lines.

“ I met you father many years ago when he was working for Kaweah River Rock, probably around 1959. I once baby sat for you two girls back then. He was a person who left foot prints on your heart. After all these years I can still see his smile. He will be missed. RIP Charles.

Thank you Marian for your kind words. Being the youngest, I usually don't remember those early days, but Iris usually does! I hope we were well behaved...
