

Cheryl June Merriweather

April 7, 1953 - October 1, 2014

On October 01, 2014 Cheryl June Merriweather went home to be with our Savior. Born April 07, 1953 to Norman and Dorothy Myers in Exeter CA and raised in Woodlake CA. Cheryl was a recipient of a Bachelor of Arts in Liberal Studies, summa cum laude, a master's degree in technology and her teaching credentials. Cheryl taught at Divisadero Middle School for 18 years.

Cheryl is survived by her husband of 35 years, Chris Merriweather; brothers Darrel, Dennis, Tim and Roger; two sons with spouses, Darren and Chrissy Merriweather, Nathan and Mary Merriweather; and four grandchildren, Andrew, Madyson, Jaiden and Cali.

The family invites you to celebrate Cheryl's life on Tuesday, October 07, 2014 at the Pentecostal Lighthouse on the corner of Giddings and Noble in Visalia CA at 11am. A private family grave side service will be held earlier that day. Arrangements are with Salser and Dillard Funeral Chapel.

Previous Events

Graveside

OCT 7. 10:00 AM (PT)

Visalia Public Cemetery
1300 W. Goshen Ave.
Visalia, CA 93291
visaliacemetery@aol.com
<http://www.visaliacem.org/>

Celebration of Life

OCT 7. 11:00 AM (PT)

Pentecostal Lighthouse of Visalia
1219 W. Noble Ave.
Visalia, CA 93277

Tribute Wall

KH

“ My favorite memories of Cheryl are of her sharing stories of teaching. Her love for her profession, her compassion for the kids and her wit made for entertaining and interesting tales. Truly a unique and courageous woman. ”

Kaye Hilty - October 07, 2014 at 09:42 AM