

Christina J. Holguin

June 5, 1925 - June 23, 2016

Christina was born on June 5, 1925, to Marcos and Francisca Jaramillo in Engle, New Mexico. The family settled in Tulare, California, where she attended Tulare schools. In 1945, she married Joe Holguin, Sr. and they made their home in Visalia where they raised their children. She was a full-time homemaker but as the children got older, she worked at various seasonal jobs.

She always talked about eventually going to her “mansion in the sky” and that day came on June 23, 2016, with family by her side. Christina cherished time with her family and friends. She loved reading, crossword puzzles and vintage movies. She enjoyed listening to all kinds of music, playing the piano, accordion and harmonica. In her earlier years, she was very active at Holy Family Catholic Church and was a member of the choir.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Joe Holguin, Sr., her son, Richard, daughter, Karen and three sisters and three brothers. She will be sorely missed by her sons, Joe Holguin, Jr. (Cindy), Paul Holguin, Danny Holguin (Joyce), Alfred Holguin (Connie) and Jimmy Holguin (Maria), daughters, Susan Delgado, Sylvia Flores (Joseph), Christine Holguin; nineteen grandchildren, twenty-four great grandchildren and two great-great grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews. She is also survived by her sisters, Dora Regalado of Bakersfield, Rachel Molinar of Vallejo and brother,

Marc Jaramillo of Pacifica. She also leaves behind many great friends who visited with her regularly.

A celebration of her life will be held on Friday, July 1st at 1:00 p.m. at Salser & Dillard Funeral Chapel, 127 E. East Caldwell, Visalia, CA. A private burial will be held at a later date at the Visalia Cemetery. A memorial tribute may be offered by logging onto www.salseranddillard.com
