“ I was excited to visit Visalia and see Chris this weekend. We always joked and he was so warm and funny. He would pack my BBQ up just how I liked and tease me about it and tell me to buy a lotto ticket. I would give him Starbucks cards. He was so warm and just a joy to see. I was shocked to hear he was gone and am sorry for your loss. I moved to Santa Barbara years ago after living near the baseball park in Visalia for a long time. He was one of my favorite parts of the neighborhood. I can see why God would have missed him and wanted him back sooner than later. (I write this through tears...) -Tina
