“ Well the Villarreal family is in mourning again after losing one of the best people I've ever known. Chris was our nephew along with all the other Villarreal siblings. Their mom Jennie was my sister and I miss her dearly along with my sister Bertha. I know we don't see each other a lot but we still have memories. I remember Chris when we were kids, I'd play with Paul, Gracie, Chris and I think the rest of you were a little younger. But either way you guys have always been here for any family members death and even the good times like family reunions. I saw Chris last at my sister Bertha's funeral and though I knew he was ill I still saw the same quiet, nice, great person in him. You are gone too soon nephew but God only takes the best. Love you and all my other nieces and nephews. May you rest in peace Chris and God Bless the ones that are left behind.
