Cody Ethan Ryan Holmes

On November 11th, 2015 a tragic accident took the life of the most wonderful son, brother and friend any of us could ever ask for. Cody from the beginning of time exuded "life", there were so many unanswered questions he sought out between life and death. His integrity, to be one, to be yourself, to be real, embodied each meaningful relationship he touched and molded. Falling in love with life and becoming selfless were things he found to be most important. Cody was life, he lived life in the now he wrote "For it's not truth that I seek, for I am truth unwilling to see its self".

Cody has forever joined his grandfather Paul Holmes, his uncle Gary Holmes and his cousin Jasmine Smith.

He is survived by the love of his life Stormy Myers, father Brian Holmes, mother Linda Herrera & husband Glenn Champagne, brother Justin Herrera & wife Margie, step siblings Aric and Amy Champagne, grandmother's Marie Holmes & Sophia Smith. Cousin's Daryn Holmes & wife Sarah, Mychael Smith, Marley Carmona, Paul Holmes & wife Elise, Ryan Robinson, Xander Black, Michael Robinson & wife Brooke. Uncles Rufino Herrera & wife Sandra, & Darryl Holmes. Aunts Deborah Black & husband Tom, Robin Smith, & Terri Lynne.

In lieu of flowers, the family request a donation be made in Cody's name to Valley Children's Hospital.

No funeral service is planned, instead, a celebration of Cody's life is planned at a future date

“ I can still feel your kiss on my cheek, I can still smell your smell, and I can see your face so clearly with those pure brown eyes like a perfectly preserved picture in my mind. My heart has never known a pain as real as this. You are the deepest, purest, most selfless soul I have ever encountered, solely out for the greater good, so true, so sincere and so beautifully stunning, projecting that aura inside and out. You are my mentor, you are my muse, you are my safe haven, and my solidity in this faux world. I will patiently await for your presence to grace my deepest dreams, the synchronicities of this life I lead, and the thoughts I observe with a still mind in a world so chaotic. The love you lived did not settle for the norm, you chose to love the real way with unwavering respect, emotions that never faded even after tough love and the desire to help everyone transcend higher. You weren't afraid to be wrong and you freed yourself of the ego so many cling to in this time. You gave me the confidence to love you unconditionally. There is more, you're not gone, you were so much more than this material world you existed in for a fraction of a second, the impact you made echoes beyond your time here. I am blessed to say I got to experience the gift of you for a short six years, and they were the best years of my life that I will forever cherish. Somehow we always found each other, reconnected, it wasn't coincidence, we will meet again. You will help me remain aware, be strong, and maintain this temporary portion of existence that is just a segment towards infinity. It's not okay and it will never be okay. You're my forever love, never ending. Saying thank you doesn't do justice for the timeless lessons and the abundance of love you gave me. I wonder what the universe is like out there..

“ I am so sorry that this happened. Cody and I were really good friends in high school, I couldn't let this go since I heard. I must say he made an impression on my heart. Great person and your family did not deserve to go through this. I am terribly sorry. I knew how much he loved his family. I feel for all of you through this time. I still cannot believe this.

My love goes out to all of you.

“ I'm sorry to say that Cody is no loner on this earth with us because he truly made it a better place. He always had a beautiful smile on his face, which did remind me of sunshine. He may not have had a long life, but his short life had depth, for sure. He was a very unique person with lots of heart and soul and an amazing way that he looked at life, death, and the universe. He will be forever missed. Our love and prayers go to my dear best friend Linda and Glen, Stormy and their beautiful whole family.

“ I am at a loss for words. My beautiful baby boy, my heart breaks that you had to go so soon. Your beautiful smile I'll miss for an eternity. The sound of your wonderful voice continually echo's in my head. The warmth of your beautiful heart embraces every living life I see. Each sun rise surrounds my soul with the warmth of your love. Each sun set brings me closer to you. I am very blessed to be your mother, a badge of honor I ware with PRIDE.
