“ My dear sister...too many memories to recall just now. We sisters had some fun. We hung together and were free as birds, well until we knew we had to be home for dinner. We all knew you were always mom's favorite so we made sure you were always us, a kind of insurance policy, kept us out of trouble. We love you sister and are delighted that you had so many people who loved you well. God bless your sweet soul, you lived your life well.
Love forever, your sister Karen
