

Corrina Mckenzie Huerta

July 31, 1984 - June 18, 2025

Corrina Huerta passed away on June 18, 2025 at the age of 40 years old.

A native of Visalia, Ca, Corrina attended Royal Oaks Elementary, Hurley Elementary, George McCann Catholic School and graduated from Redwood High School.

After high school Corrina lived briefly in Seaside, Ca. She returned to Visalia where she became a Certified Real Estate Appraiser. She worked in the family business for 17 years.

Corrina had the most beautiful and kind heart. She loved to travel the world with her loved ones, her most recent being to Europe. She was even able to travel to one of her dad's favorite places, Alaska, where he taught her to fish. She never, ever turned down any opportunity to attend a country concert or go to Disneyland. She loved being with her family, going to the beach, and cheering on the Raiders.

Corrina is survived by her parents Cruz and Rosie Huerta, brother Michael Huerta (Nicole Huerta), sister Catheryn Huerta, god daughter Sophia Huerta, sons Andre Herrera and Matthew Ponce.

“ I was heartbroken to hear about the passing of my old friend from high school. She was such a kind, genuine soul and a truly great friend during those formative years. I'll always remember her laugh, her warmth, and the way she made people feel seen. Sending love to all who are grieving her loss. 💔
