

Darlene Lynn Jastram

December 30, 1952 - November 17, 2014

Darlene Jastram, 61, beloved mother and grandmother passed away on Monday, November 17, 2014 at KDH of a 3yr fight with cancer. Darlene resided at her home in Exeter, worked and retired this month from DHHS in Lindsay. She was born December 30, 1952 in Metairie, Louisiana. Darlene met and eventually fell in love with Emile Jastram in 1971 in New Orleans, Louisiana and were married in 1973. They moved to the Visalia in 1977. Darlene enjoyed being at the beach in Morro Bay, cross stitching, working in their Garden Railroad, going on multiple cruises, visiting with friends and spending quality time with her grandbabies. She is survived by her husband Emile Jastram, her daughter Rachel Steffenson (Donald) of Ohio, three granddaughters; Hailie, Kaylin and Makala, her brother Gary Maggio, and her mini kids; Ty, Su, and Brutus. She was preceded in death by her parents Joseph and Shirley Maggio of Louisiana and a brother Donald Maggio also of Louisiana. A celebration of her life will be at 10am Saturday, November 22, 2014 at Salser & Dillard Funeral Home, 127 East Caldwell Ave., Visalia.

“ Darlene has been on my mind so much this week since I heard that she had passed.

My heart is grieving as I think of the love she had for her family and the loss you must feel. I believe in a place called Heaven and I know that she is there and that she is OK. Hold on tight to God's Grace because that is how you get through a loss of someone you love. My thoughts and prayers are with you.
