“ I have so many memories it's hard to focus on just one. I'd have to say when we were in Springville he was happy up until the day he left us. Always on his computer, his computer as he like to call it, always something political or family tree stuff for him. Plus, it was nice when he played his music. I miss you Dad!!

“ I remember when I moved back in with Mom and Dad to help take care of him towards the later part of his life and he would always be playing on his computer with his favorite things, either politics or our family history and sometimes listening to his favorite music in the process. I can personally say Dad was happy amidst his conditions and he went peacefully in the night as he so wished to do. I still to this day haven't gotten to go see his Nitch but that will never take away how much he was loved and how much I truly miss him. He was strict, but he was a very good Father to me. I miss you Dad!!
P.S. if you search for David Rhyner on Facebook, he still has a page where you can read all his postings and see his pictures.

“ One thing that has stuck in my mind from my childhood. When I was young I loved to climb trees as high as I could. One day, i was around 10 years old, I climbed a tree not far from our second story apartment with the window about eye level. Well not long later I see my dad David looking out the window right at me. Well I flew down that tree like I had wings and expected to get the whipping of my life. He never said a word. Recently I asked him why I never got in trouble and he said that the reason was he didn't want to scare me and have me fall. He could see me swaying in the wind!

“ We miss and love you dad. You were always there when we needed you no matter the problem. The world was a better place with you in it. I will see you again one day and that thought makes me feel better. I love you dad.

“ I am sorry to hear the news. I remember him telling me about my dad ( John) getting his AMX and driving around.

“ I remember when we were kids, Dave and I would always play cowboys and Indians. We would break branches off the neighbors tree (and get fussed at for it) and make bows and arrows out of them. Of course, Dave always got to be the cowboy and I had to be the Indian because he had his toy guns and holster. We played together a lot because we always had each other. I will miss you Dave.

“ Dad took Jeremy and me fishing on Beaver Lake. We brought home 32 Blue Gill that day. Or the time we rented a pontoon boat on Kaweah Lake. We got skunked all day. Jeremy decided to drop a line off the dock late that night. We pulled up bass as fast as we could drop our lines.
I love you dad.

I can remember when I was about 8 Dave stood behind me and let me pull the trigger and shoot his pistol through a road sign. I thought that was the coolest thing ever.

Rest in peace big brother! My heart goes out to you all for what I know you're going through. I have to smile, though, when I think of the happy, carefree Dave of 25 years ago...the way I remember him...because I know he is now happy and carefree again. All my love, Gail
