

David Choy Saechao

August 17, 1983 - January 8, 2025

David C. Saechao of Visalia passed away suddenly on January 8, 2025 from health complications. This loss was completely unexpected leaving family and friends in shock and deeply saddened. He will be truly missed.

David was born on August 17, 1983 to Chai Wang Saechao and Ying Fou Saechao in Long Beach, California. The family relocated to Visalia, California in 1992, where he attended Houston Elementary School, Green Acres Middle School, and Redwood High School.

From his teenage years to his young adult years, David suffered from mental illness and many health conditions.

In 2018, David beat stage 4 Lymphoma Cancer. David known as TANK was a man of strength ; those close to him had a taste of his sense of humor.

David was a resident of TLC, Transitional Living Care where he was cared for and doing very well. After losing his father, he decided to take matters into his own hands and decided to leave TLC. Unfortunately his mental illness and his medical condition worsened unexpectedly and it took a toll on his life.

David is survived by his stepmom: Melissa Lee, Five siblings: Steve Saechao, William Saechao, Cathy Saechao, Erika Saechao, Jesse Saelee, Brandon

Saelee, Sister in Law: Veronica Saechao, and three nieces and five nephews.
