“ Grandma, you were more than you'll ever know. You were my greatest friend. You loved me unconditionally, no matter how much time in-between or how far we were apart. You had the sweetest and most straightforward care that not every woman carries in their hearts. I know I didn't get to see you much, but I was always thinking of you and the family. You have created my dreams to love and care endlessly like you have and always will. I will forever thank you for this life you allowed me to be in. You taught me to be tough and strong through absolutely anything and also loving and compassionate when needed most. I promise I will work on being stronger each day. I will always miss your smiles and laughter! May you rest in peace grandma. I love you so much❤️

“ Dianne and I shared grandchildren and although we didn't see each other often, we enjoyed each others company and conversation when we were at a gathering to celebrate a special event for a grandchild. She was a hard worker and gifted in many ways. Condolences to the family.

“ My name is Ernie Delgado my mother passed away four years ago Diane Dallyn for the past 4 years has given me the opportunity to still have a mother in my life for that's what I looked at her as. When I visited her I would do anything for her and we would enjoy each other's company and discussions we would have good and bad debates of different kinds politics being one of the main topics. But we would always find time Garden her yard to cook a meal and to eat together at times. I will miss my dear second mom and friend very very much. Her being a Believer myself a believer I know she's in a better place with my mom and all her loved ones that are in heaven with Jesus Christ our lord and savior.

“ Mom you are my rock. I love and miss our time together even though I don't like jeopardy you said I could learn a few things. I'm happy you started getting used to my bitter coffee. You will forever be missed. I will always cherish the times together. I love you dearly. Let your inner butterfly fly with all the Angel's and tell everyone I love them. I will miss football with you.
