

Don Ray Clark, Jr.

January 5, 1968 - February 15, 2023

Don Clark at the age of 55, passed away after a brief battle with cancer, on Wednesday, February 15, 2023 in Visalia, CA. Don, also known as Donnie to many, grew up in Tulare, CA. He attended Kohn Cherry Ave Jr High and Tulare Union High School, class of 1986.

Don began his career at Frito Lay as a route Sales Representative in May 2000. During his many years with Frito Lay he earned many prestigious awards. He won the coveted annual Ring of Honor award five times, meaning he was top for sales, service and many other factors. During this time he made many friends, not only with co-workers but his customers as well. Don was always willing to help others, as well as teach others. His strong work ethic showed every day to everyone.

Don spent many summers from youth to adulthood enjoying camping and fishing in Sequoia and Kings Canyon National Parks. Big Meadows is where he found his love of the outdoors. Most Sundays he could be found watching Nascar, football or just hanging out enjoying his backyard.

Don is preceded in death by his mother Donna May from Tulare, CA and father Don Clark Sr from Porterville, CA. Don is survived by his fiance Krystal Ponce and her daughter Alexis Ponce. His sister and brother-in-law Timi and Phillip Guerrero, nephew Justin Guerrero and family, niece Celina Guerrero and many extended family members.

Don loved to put a smile on everyone's face with a funny voice or silly gesture. His humor will be missed by everyone who knew him. We will always carry your memories in our hearts. Rest easy until we meet again.

Visitation will be held 4:00 PM - 5:00 PM Friday, March 3rd, 2023 at Salser & Dillard Funeral Chapel, 127 E. Caldwell Ave., Visalia. Prayer Service will follow at 5:00 PM.
