“ Don was the best Grandfather a girl could ask for. Even when I was a little girl and sprayed WD40 all over Prespray bottles. He was so mad. But we had good laughs about that for so many years. Thank you Grandpa for teaching me things a father would teach his daughter. Thank you for not giving up on me. We still had so many things to do. But for now it's not goodbye, it's until I see you again at the Pearly Gates of Heaven. I love you.

“ I always considered Don a good friend and colleague, he always had a good sense of humor, a smile, and words of encouragement. He will be missed.
