

Donald H Grady

December 26, 1933 - March 31, 2021

Donald H. Grady, 50 year resident of Visalia and longtime Principal of Redwood High School peacefully departed this life on March 31, 2021. He was an active parishioner of St. Mary's Catholic Church and supporter of George McCann Memorial School.

Don was a lifelong learner beginning with his education at San Joaquin Memorial High School in Fresno. He graduated from Santa Clara University and then earned his master's degree from Fresno State University.

Don spent his entire professional career in education teaching, counseling and school administration.

After retiring, Don enjoyed traveling, camping, fishing, cooking, volunteering and following his favorite sports teams.

He is preceded in death by his wife of 48 years, Joan, his parents Maxine and Howard Grady, brother Daniel Grady, sister JoAnn Satterfield and beloved dog Freddy.

He is survived by seven daughters, 18 grandchildren, and 17 great grandchildren.

Although he is gone from our sight, he will forever live in our hearts and memory.

A private graveside service and memorial mass was held by the family.
