“ I remember the first day you walked into our office. Wearing a straw hat, suspenders, and you were so red because it was so hot outside. You said it was the best decision that you made. You were happy here at Sunburst. We loved having you here. You were so sad when you moved to be closer to your congregation. I remember. I still spoke with you after that. You were in my office everyday for a whole year always sharing good laughs and life stories. You were a truly amazing person. Those are hard to find which makes it hard to know that you are gone. Hope you get to see Jake up in heaven.
